

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

1

When the Devil Can Tempt No More

2

A group of Arctic explorers were stranded on a rocky, barren island. Their supplies were rapidly running out. They had eaten their last few morsels of food. Their fuel supply was low.

The temperature was dropping fast and they were freezing. They prepared themselves for the worst. They knew that death would come soon. Just when they had given up hope, one of the dying explorers noticed a puff of smoke on the horizon. Someone had picked up their short-wave radio signal. Help was on the way. Deliverance was coming.

The puff of smoke on the horizon was all they needed to encourage them to hang on. Soon the long nightmare of that horrible ordeal would be over.

Soon they would be secure in the warmth of the rescue vessel, and then soon after they would be home. Home at last!

4

The last book of the Bible, Revelation, reveals that help is on the way. Soon we, too, will be delivered. The long nightmare of sin will be over. We will be delivered, and Satan will be imprisoned.

We will be set free, and Satan will be bound. We will be caught up in the sky to meet Jesus, and Satan will be chained by circumstances to this earth. We will receive the sentence of eternal life, and Satan and his followers will receive the sentence of eternal destruction.

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

5

(Video: 13 sec) Every now and then, a judge or jury somewhere in the world sentences someone to an impossibly long prison term, in order to express horror or outrage about the crime.

A sentence of three or four life sentences in a row or even 99 years when the criminal is already of retirement age is handed down with no real expectation that it could ever be served in full.

6

But through the judge or jury, the sentence expresses the outrage of society for particularly terrible crimes.

7

8

(Text: Revelation 20:1-3)

Listen to these words from the Bible: "Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand."

9

He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years;

10 and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished.

11

But after these things he must be released for a little while.”
Revelation 20:1-3.

13

Here we find that God has a plan to deal with the greatest criminal this universe has ever known—a criminal who’s been directly involved in every sin and crime ever committed on this earth.

But the time will soon come when he will be imprisoned for 1,000 years!
A thousand years in the most wretched, devastated spot in the universe.
Sometimes this time period is referred to as the Millennium.

14

What is the Millennium?

15

This thousand-year period of time is called the “millennium,” from two Latin words, mille, meaning “one thousand,” and annum, meaning “year.”

16

The prophecy also tells us that Satan will be imprisoned for 17

1,000 years and that he will then be released for a short time to prove to the world that even after 1,000 years, he has not changed—he is still the same devil.

To be able to understand this prophecy and fully see its significance, we need to find out how it starts and ends and what happens during the period in between.

18

Let me make a statement now, and then I will proceed to prove that statement's truthfulness.

The millennium is bound in by two resurrections:

19

1) The resurrection of life at the beginning of that period, and 2) the resurrection of damnation at the end of the time.

20

21

(Text: John 5:25)

One day when Jesus was teaching His disciples about death, He said:

"Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live."

22

John 5:25.

There you have it.

The dead shall hear His voice and shall live.

That is, all of the dead will be raised.

I know that will come as a surprise to some of you, because you thought that only the righteous dead would be raised. Notice how Christ elaborates on this in the 28th and 29th verses of this same chapter:

23

(Text: John 5:28, 29)

"Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

24

“and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life;

25 and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.” John 5:28, 29 KJV

26

(Video: 4 sec) Notice the two resurrections. First, the resurrection of those who have done good, and the second one—the resurrection of damnation.

27

Listen to what the Bible has to say about those in the first resurrection:

28

(Text: Revelation 20:5, 6)
“This is the first resurrection.

29

Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.” Revelation 20:5, 6.

30

31

This is in harmony with what Paul told the Thessalonians. Notice how He describes the second coming of Christ.

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

(Text: 1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17)

“For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first.

32

33

Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

34

And thus we shall always be with the Lord.” Verses 16, 17.

35

What a glorious description of the resurrection. You will notice that the dead in Christ will be raised first, and then the followers of Christ who are alive will be caught up with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air!

36

(Text: John 11:25)

On that day will be fulfilled the promise made by Jesus, “He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.” John 11:25.

37

Yes, the righteous dead will be raised from their graves when Christ returns.

38

(Text: Isaiah 26:19)

Isaiah describes this joyous event: “Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: . . . and the earth shall cast out the dead.” Isaiah 26:19.

What a glorious day that will be!

39

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

40

Mothers being reunited with their babies who died.
Husbands and wives reunited.
Sons and daughter reunited with Mom and Dad!
Could the scene be any more moving?

41

(Text: John 14:2, 3)
Then the wonderful promise Christ made so long ago will be fulfilled: "I go to prepare a place for you.

42

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself,

43

that where I am, there you may be also."
John 14:2, 3
This is where the saved will spend the millennium!

44

(Text: Revelation 20:6)
What will we be doing? John tells us: "Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years." Revelation 20:6.

45

Aside from the unspeakable joy of fellowship with Christ and His followers, John gives more insight as to what they will be doing during the millennium:

46

(Text: Revelation 20:4)
"And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them."
Revelation 20:4.

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

The all-wise, all-powerful God of the universe has included feeble men and women in the solemn task of judging fallen angels and the unsaved.

47

(Text: 1 Corinthians 6:2, 3)

Paul states: "Do you not know that the saints will judge the world?..."

48

Do you not know that we shall judge angels?"

1 Corinthians 6:2, 3.

49

It will become clear-once and for all-that God is just and good and fair.

For thousands of years Satan has leveled the accusation that God is unfair, unloving, and unjust.

The years of the millennium will put this notion to rest, vindicating God's character before the entire universe!

But why would we need to judge the evil angels and the wicked sinners?

Haven't they been judged before Christ comes?

50

True, but have you ever wondered what your reaction might be if you looked for someone in heaven whom you expected to find there-only to discover he or she is lost forever?

You might call the fairness of God's justice into question.

51

During the millennium, the records of the lost will be opened. The most guarded secrets and purposes harbored in each mind will be exposed.

God's love and justice will be affirmed.

52

(Text: Revelation 16:7)

Those inspecting the records will be left with only one response: "Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments." Revelation 16:7.

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

53

You may be wondering what happened to those who were living when Christ comes, but did not accept salvation. Revelation chapter 19 describes the second coming of Christ and the destruction of the unsaved in these words:

54

(Text: Revelation 19:21)

“And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded

55 from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse...” Revelation 19:21

56

There is no way that the lost will be able to stand before the glory of the coming Christ with all of His holy angels.

57

One angel came to the tomb of Jesus, and the Roman soldiers became as dead men.

58

(Text: Jeremiah 25:33)

The Bible says, “And at that day the slain of the Lord shall be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth.

59

They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall become refuse on the ground.” Jeremiah 25:33.

60

At the second coming of Christ, the righteous are resurrected and translated to meet Christ in the clouds,

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

61 and the unsaved will be slain by the brightness of His coming—by “the sword that goes out of His mouth.”

Someone is going to ask the question, “What about the unsaved who are still in their graves?”

The answer is given in the fifth verse of Revelation, chapter 20:

62

(Text: Revelation 20:5)
“But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished...”

63

The puzzle is beginning to fit together.
The big picture is coming into focus as to what will happen when Jesus Christ returns:

64

These are the events that take place at Christ's coming

65

1. Jesus will return, with all of the holy angels (Matthew 25:31).

66

2. The dead in Christ will rise first (1 Thessalonians 4:16).

67

3. The living saved are caught up to meet Jesus in the air (1Thessalonians 4:17).

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

68

4. The saved go home with Jesus and reign with Him for 1,000 years (Revelation 20:4, 6).

69

5. The unsaved are slain by the brightness of the coming of Christ (Jeremiah 25:33).

70

6. The wicked dead are not raised until after the 1,000 years. (Revelation 20:5).

71

7. Satan is bound for the 1,000 years by a chain of circumstances-no one to tempt or destroy!

72

The righteous are in heaven, and all the wicked are dead.
Everyone is gone!
Everywhere, there is ruin (Jeremiah 4:23-26).

73

This earth becomes the devil's prison.
The Bible says that Satan was put into a bottomless pit for the millennium.
How is he chained?

By a chain of circumstances that make it impossible for him to tempt and destroy anyone for 1,000 years.

74

Those who have followed Satan during their life on this earth are struck dead at Christ's coming, or they remain in the grave until the thousand years are over.

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

The saved are all with Christ for the thousand years.

75

The devil has only his evil angels to tempt and mislead, and they, after 6,000 years, are as bad as he is.

76

This earth becomes his prison.

He wanted to show how he would rule the world, so he took the dominion from Adam and Eve by deceit, but now everyone will be able to see what kind of a ruler he really is!

77

(Text: Revelation 20:3)

You will remember that Rev. 20:3 says:

“And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled:

78

79

and after that he must be loosed a little season.”

The original Bible word for bottomless pit is abussos.

This is the same word used in the Old Testament to describe the world in its chaotic state before God formed this beautiful world.

80

(Text: Jeremiah 4:23)

It is this same word used in the book of Jeremiah:

“I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.”

Jeremiah 4:23.

81

Yes, the world is an abussos or “bottomless pit.”

It’s going to be a dark place!

Now, notice what else Jeremiah has to say about the earth at this time:

82

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

83

(Text: Jeremiah 4:24, 25)

“I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

84

I beheld and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.”

Jeremiah 4:24, 25.

You will notice that it said, “There was no man.”

85

(Text: Jeremiah 4:26)

Again Jeremiah says, “I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Lord, and by His fierce anger.” Verses 26, 27.

86

87

That certainly sounds like a grim place to take a vacation for 1,000 years, wouldn't you say?

Satan and the wicked angels have nothing to do but wander to and fro on the dark, devastated, lonely planet and reflect on the results of their rebellion against God!

88

Now let us review the events that take place during the millennium:

89

1. The earth is desolate and devastated.

90

2. All the unsaved are dead, slain by the brightness of Jesus' coming.

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

91

3. All the saved are in heaven, reigning with Christ.

92

4. Satan is bound on this dark, devastated planet to reflect on his rebellion.

93

Will Satan change?

What about the angels he led into rebellion?

Will they choose to follow him again-or will they follow Christ now?

One of the reasons God has chosen to put the millennium in His timetable is that He wants to demonstrate to the universe that if the devil, his angels, and those who have chosen to follow him on this earth were given another chance, they would make the same decision and choose the same master.

94

They would reject the plan of salvation even though they had a thousand chances to accept it.

95

What does the Bible say about their choice?

96

(Text: Revelation 20:7, 8)

The answer is given in Revelation 20:7, 8: "Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison"

97 and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth . . .

98 to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea."

Revelation 20:7, 8.

Perhaps you are wondering where all these people will come from who are going to be in this battle.

99

(Text: Revelation 20:5)

Remember, we read in the 20th chapter of Revelation, verse 5:

"But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished."

100

Yes, the rest of the dead or the unsaved dead are raised in the resurrection of damnation at the end of the millennium.

What a sight it will be to see the wicked dead raised to life-a vast number, all the wicked from Adam's day to the second advent.

101

(Text: Revelation 20:8)

John says, "The number of whom is as the sand of the sea."

Revelation 20:8.

102

At this same time the Holy City, New Jerusalem, with Christ and the saved, comes to earth at the end of the millennium! This City will become the target of Satan's wrath, for the Bible says,

103

(Text: Revelation 20:7, 8)

"And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth . . .

104

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

105

To gather them together to battle.”
Revelation 20:7, 8.

106

Now Satan and his evil angels go out to deceive the wicked again!
He hasn't changed one bit!
Again the unsaved choose Satan as their leader.

The devil marshals them into one vast army bent on taking the New Jerusalem by force.
This is earth's last battle!
The mighty army, under the rebel angel's leadership, advances!

107

Let's read what the Bible says will happen:

108

(Text: Revelation 20:9)
“They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city.

109

And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.”
Revelation 20:9.

110

The battle is over! How sad when it could have been so different!
What happens to the devil? The Bible tells us:

111

(Text: Revelation 20:10, 14, 15)
“The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone....

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

112

Then Death and Hades were cast into the fire. This is the second death.

113

And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire."

Revelation 20:10, 14, 15.

Peter saw this fire in vision and wrote:

114

(Text: 2 Peter 3:10)

"...The heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up."

115

2 Peter 3:10

Satan, his evil angels, and sinners will then be forever gone!

We may have relatives, friends, or acquaintances whom we love dearly who will be gone forever.

Of course, we will cry. How could it be otherwise?

117

(Text: Revelation 21:4)

But, the good news is: "And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes, there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

118

Revelation 21:4.

What a glorious eternity God promises the saved!

The human mind cannot comprehend the glory and beauty of the paradise that God is preparing for those who love and are willing to follow Him!

24 - EVIL IN CHAINS

And to think that all of this, the wicked could have enjoyed,
but the price seemed too high!
They were unwilling to choose Christ as their Savior and Lord.

Which group will you be in on that day, my friend?
When that day comes, it will be too late to change sides.

Even at the beginning of the thousand years, when Jesus comes, it will be too late.
It could be too late even if you should die suddenly and without warning.

The only way to be absolutely sure that you are among the righteous at the end of the millennium is to give your heart and life entirely to Jesus now-TODAY!

120

If you would like to fully, completely give your life to Jesus, I would like you to come forward for special prayer.
If you have some problem in your life, come forward for prayer right now.

If you have some habit you need victory over, come forward for prayer.
If you are struggling with some temptation, come forward for prayer.

Jesus will hear you. Jesus will answer. I'll wait a minute, but come, and come right now.
